

Unlocking Employment

How to Partner with Job Seekers Impacted by the Legal System

OVERVIEW

Unlocking Employment: How to Partner with Job Seekers Impacted by the Legal System is a 90-minute online course for New York City workforce development providers designed to enhance skills and build capacity for working with job seekers who have legal-system involvement.

This free professional development opportunity emphasizes a strengths-based approach, and is filled with key insights on legal protections for those with criminal convictions, ways to reduce stigma, and proven strategies to support the job search.

90-MIN ONLINE COURSE WITH INTERACTIVE EXERCISES & CASE STUDIES

Designed in partnership with job seekers and workforce practitioners, this 90-minute online training includes four (4) self-paced modules, which feature interactive exercises and case studies, as well as a curated resource library that learners may refer to at any time during or after the course.

FOUR COURSE MODULES

Exploring the Impact of the Legal System on Job Seekers

Legal Protections from Discrimination Against Job Seekers

Getting to Know Your Job Seeker

Supporting the Job Search

FOR INFORMATION & REGISTRATION

bit.ly/unlocking-employment

FOR NYC WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT PROVIDERS

Unlocking Employment was created to realize our shared commitment to improving economic outcomes for all New Yorkers. Registration is free and open to frontline staff and program leadership at NYC workforce development programs.

